Statement of Understanding and Consent for Treatment

Psychotherapy is not like a medical doctor visit; it calls for a very active effort on your part. In order for the therapy to be most successful, you will have to work on things we talk about both during our sessions and at home.

Psychotherapy can have benefits and risks. Since therapy often involves discussing unpleasant aspects of your life, you may experience uncomfortable feelings like sadness, guilt, anger, frustration, loneliness, and helplessness. On the other hand, psychotherapy often leads to better relationships, solutions to specific problems, and significant reductions in feelings of distress. But there are no guarantees of what you will experience.

In couples therapy, if you and your partner decide to have some individual sessions, what you say in those individual sessions will be considered to be a part of the couples therapy, and can and probably will be discussed in our joint sessions. Do not say anything you wish kept secret from your partner. You will be reminded of this policy before beginning such individual sessions.

Discover Counseling, its employees and contractors, are generally available by appointment only, Monday through Friday. You may call and leave a confidential message at any time and we will return your call as soon as possible. Our policy for after-hours coverage is to leave a message and we will return your call the next business day. If you are in need of urgent or emergency services after hours, contact your local social services, crisis line (Washington County: 503-291-9111) or dial 911.

Please understand that information obtained from you is confidential under Oregon law. Information may not be shared with anyone without your permission except in the following circumstances:

1. When a court order is received.
2. When there is reasonable cause to believe that you will hurt yourself or someone else.
3. When there is reasonable suspicion to believe that abuse/neglect of a child, elderly person, disabled person, or any animal is occurring or has occurred.
4. Information necessary for billing purposes, justification for treatment, and resolution of a complaint.

Your INITIALS beside each of the following indicates your understanding and consent for treatment:

_____ I understand that I may withdraw consent for treatment at any time.
_____ I understand and have reviewed statement of financial responsibilities.
_____ I have received a professional disclosure statement.
_____ I have received a copy of HIPAA's Notice of Privacy Practices.
_____ I understand that any records sent to or retrieved from other professionals will be marked and directed as "NO FURTHER DISCLOSURE" to protect your privacy.

Your signature indicates that you understand this "Statement of Understanding and Consent for Treatment" and agree to the above. I hereby give Discover Counseling, LLC consent to provide my treatment.

Statement of Understanding and Consent for Electronic Communication

Discover Counseling, its employees and contractors, utilize various methods of communication to maintain contact with clients. There are various methods of contact with us including phone and email. Please understand this office is portable and thus phone contact with us will be on a cellular phone. We utilize text messaging in very limited circumstances and only for scheduling or basic information purposes.

Please be aware that electronic communication via telephone or email may not be secure for either party. Due to the nature of this type of communication, there is a potential for interception or misdirection of your information. Your use of phone or email to communicate protected health information indicates that you acknowledge and accept the possible risks associated with such communication. Please consider communicating any sensitive information in person to protect your privacy. The type of information transmitted via email should be used for scheduling or other incidental issues only. Contacts to discuss all other issues should be made preferably in person or via phone if arises.

As a general rule, Discover Counseling, its employees and contractors, do not have contact with clients outside of the office that is unrelated to mental health treatment. This rule applies to various internet messaging sites, social networking sites, and general emails unrelated to our professional relationship. Please understand that any contacts or requests for contacts will not be confirmed or acknowledged to protect your privacy as well as to eliminate a dual relationship. Please INITIAL below:

_____ I understand the risks associated with utilizing any electronic methods of communication and agree to do so at my own risk.

_____ I understand email contacts will be for scheduling and incidental purposes. All other forms of communication will be made preferably in person or via phone if emergency arises.

HIPAA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. You have the right to get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record, correct your paper or electronic medical record, request confidential communication, ask us to limit the information we share, get a list of those with whom we've shared your information, get a copy of this privacy notice, choose someone to act for you, and file a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we tell family and friends about your condition, provide mental health care, and market our services. We may use and share your information as we treat you, run our organization, bill for your services, help with public health and safety issues, do research, comply with the law, address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests, and respond to lawsuits and legal actions. You can get a paper copy of your medical record. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee. You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days. You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests. You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information. You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months. You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action. You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint. We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html. We can share health information about you for certain situations such as reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, and preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety. We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law. We can use or share health information about you: For workers' compensation claims, for law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official, with health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law, or for special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services. We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena. We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information. We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information. We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it. We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

Statement of Financial Responsibility

Fees: I provide services at $125 per 50-minute session, and the initial intake session is $150. Phone calls, reports, and other services provided outside of regularly scheduled appointments are billed in 15-minute increments (e.g., 60 minutes would be $125). Participation in legal proceedings is billed at $250 per hour, including commute time, report writing, and other preparations. Payment and insurance co-pays due in full by cash, check, or debit/credit card on the date of service. I prefer cash/check, but will process cards (including FSA/HSA) on the date of service with an additional fee per transaction ($1 for copays under $50, $2 for copays up to $99, $3 for fees above $100). Full payment is required for the first session, which can be credited back to you once insurance benefits are verified. You are responsible for these bills including any portion not covered or reimbursed by your insurance company.

Cancellation Policy: Please call 24 hours in advance to change or cancel an appointment to allow that time for another person. You are able to leave a message 24 hours a day. If you do not show for an appointment and do not call to cancel within 24 hours of the session, you will be billed the $125 rate for the session. Health insurance does not cover this fee.

Payment Policy and Agreement: In the event that my account has not been paid within 90 days, I authorize Discover Counseling, LLC to charge the following account for services according to the financial policies and payment agreement above at which time account will be charged any unpaid balance.

Professional Disclosure Statement

Philosophy & Approach: I utilize Contextual, Cognitive-Behavioral, and Family Systems techniques in the counseling process. I will work with you on concrete thoughts and actions, and impacts of relationships, compassionately helping to make effective changes towards your goals. As a Christian counselor, I believe that there is a spiritual aspect of life that should be recognized and included, in addition to the psychological and physiological aspects of counseling. I will seek to provide spiritual guidance when requested and only with your fully informed consent.

Education & Training: I hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Seattle Pacific University and a Master of Arts in Marriage and Family degree from George Fox University. I am also a Certified Drug & Alcohol Counselor in the state of Oregon. My graduate coursework has included: Human Growth and Development, Personality and Counseling Theory, Psychopathology, Advanced Marriage & Family Therapy, Addictions (Drugs, Alcohol, and Sexual), Professional Ethics, and Counseling Supervision.

License Information: As a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists (OBLPCT), I will abide by its Code of Ethics. Additionally, I am required to complete and document 40 hours of Continuing Education (CE) every two years, focusing on increasing knowledge and/or skills in areas such as theory and techniques of counseling/therapy, DSM diagnosis and assessment, and professional ethics.

Client Bill of Rights: The following client rights have been established by the Oregon State Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists [OAR 833-60-0001(4)(h)]. Consumers of counseling or therapy services offered by Oregon licensees have the right:

1. To expect that a licensee has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
2. To examine public records maintained by the Board and to have the Board confirm credentials of a licensee;
3. To obtain a copy of the Code of Ethics;
4. To report complaints to the Board;
5. To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
6. To be assured of privacy and confidentiality while receiving services as defined by rule and law, including the following exceptions:
    a) Reporting suspected child abuse;
    b) Reporting imminent danger to client or others;
    c) Reporting information required in court proceedings or by client's insurance company, or other relevant agencies;
    d) Providing information concerning licensee case consultation or supervision; and
    e) Defending claims brought by the client against the licensee.
7. To be free from being the object of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services.

You may contact the Oregon Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists at the following address and phone number: 3218 Pringle Road SE, Suite 250, Salem, OR 97302-6312, 503.378.5499.
